

Bill Magoon Bio

Bill Magoon joined Public Entity Partners in August 2001 to serve as Property Conservation Consultant for the loss control department for members across the state. Eventually, the state was divided into three regions and he began serving East Tennessee members.

Bill has a diverse public service background and came to Public Entity Partners with more than 25 years' experience as Public Works Director and City Manager for Collegedale, Tenn.

Bill conducts property conservation surveys to help public entities identify exposures and threats to public buildings and public finances, and he helps develop a plan for preserving entities' assets. He is proud to live in beautiful Tennessee and enjoys working with Public Entity Partners' members in East Tennessee.

Bill's hobbies include camping, motorcycle touring and spending time with family.
