

Jimmie Edwards Bio

Jimmie Edwards serves Montgomery County as the Director of Emergency Services. He works with the County Volunteer Fire Departments, Emergency Management Agency, and Emergency Medical Services in planning, budget development, and operations. He is a licensed Paramedic and Registered Nurse who uses his combined experiences to help his community navigate through the many challenges of the COVID-19 Pandemic. He once served a consultant for the State of Tennessee office of emergency medical services.